NOW DOES ALL HER WORK

Has No Backache, No Bad Feelings Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Drove Her Illness Away

Milwaukee, Wisconsin—"I was in a badly run-down condition and I would get weak spells and terrible headaches. I felt so badly last year that I could not do any housework. The minute I would take or sleep I would feel as if I was going to fall to pieces. I told a neighbor how I felt and she said that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the thing for me. I took four bottles and in the fall of the year I took three. I had been treated by a doctor but he gave me an iron tonic and that did not help me. It seemed that the tonic did not help me. That gave me the strength and ambition I needed and I have gained in weight. This year before I started to clean house I got four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and am taking it right along. I tell all my friends about it and how much good it does me. They can not get 112 now and do all my work myself again."—Mrs. E. M. O. BRANDENBURG, 651 37th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

We have plenty of good horses. A good stock of harnesses. Some double wagons.

Circle Supper
The best attended circle supper of the season was held in the church vestry, Thursday evening, April 16. The members of the church were on the committee and we will certainly have to hand it to the men this time as they took hold of the job like professionals. The minister acted as head waiter with Charles Chaplin, E. T. Curtis, Barton Files, Otis Cobb and John Files able assistants and if anyone went hungry it was no fault of the waiters as they kept the plates well-filled with beans, white and brown bread, pickles, cakes, doughnuts and cheese, pies and cookies. V. H. Littlefield poured the coffee, J. M. Bartlett officiated at the dish man and Elmer McAllister substituted for his wife and collected the supper admission.

As this was Mr. Thurston's birthday, he was presented with two large birthday cakes, prettily decorated, and on each one were 25 lighted candles, 25 years being the number of years Mr. Thurston said he was celebrating and of course we sang his word for it. After supper the children played games but the ladies enjoyed just setting doing nothing as it is seldom they have the opportunity of watching their husbands clear the tables and do the dishes and they enjoyed the sensation to the fullest extent and the men seemed to rather enjoy it, too. It certainly proved to be the most enjoyable supper of the season and it is hoped there will be more of them.

Fernando McAllister went to the C. M. G. Hospital in Lewiston last Tuesday for an operation.

Mrs. Ralph Klucken was in Portland a few days last week.

Lucie and Ora McAllister walked over to Northeast Lovell last Thursday to see their father.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartlett of Norway were callers in town, Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Files, who has been sick, is able to be out again.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting, Saturday night, with all the officers but two in their places. After the meeting there was a Mystery Box furnished by Mrs. J. M. Bartlett and won by Mrs. Eva Adams. At the next regular meeting, May 2, there will be a short program after the regular meeting is over.

Simon Grover has been sick for the past few days.

A number of the men of the town have been enjoying the sport of smelting for the past week with varied success. Ervil Curtis was fortunate on two occasions in getting quite a few. Virgil and Minnie Littlefield were invited in to supper one evening to partake of the fruits of his labor. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bartlett were also recipients of a nice piece of fish all cleaned (which, by the way is no small job) ready to fry. They certainly were delicious.

Mrs. Frances Bennett and two children spent the day last Tuesday with Mrs. Ervil Curtis.

Miss Faye Matthews went home for the week end.

By the weather we got, Sunday, we think the calendar must have gotten turned back about three months as it was a real winter day and about a foot of snow fell. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bartlett were seen enjoying a sleigh ride. We hope it will be the last one they will get this season.

Mid-week prayer services were held in the church vestry Wednesday evening.

There are several fishermen at "Cliffwood Camp" trying their luck for salmon in the lake and smelts in the neighboring brooks.

NORTH WATERFORD
The Jolly Ladies were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Mary Holt at her home on the afternoon of April 15. The usual good time was helped out by the songs given by Ellen Farmer, Nellie Hobson and Rilla Marston, relative to the club. Assisted by Geraldine Jackson, the hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake. There will be another gathering as soon as the spring cleaning excitement is over.

KARNAK SAVED HIS LIFE DECLARES AUGUSTA MAN

Almost A Physical Wreck,
O. F. Reynolds Gains 16
Pounds And Is Now The Picture Of Health

Remarkable, indeed, is the statement of Mr. Orrin R. Reynolds, 6 Spruce St., Augusta, Me., who states that Karnak has not only overcome troubles of six years' standing but has actually built him up sixteen pounds in weight.

"I believe Karnak actually saved my life," says Mr. Reynolds. "I suffered from one of the worst cases of stomach trouble a man could have. I couldn't retain even the lightest kind of food on my stomach, and gas would press around my heart until it seemed like it would stop beating. Stomach cramps and pains were just terrible. I had awful headaches and weak dizzy spells, and felt so exhausted it was all I could do to drag myself home from work. I fell off in weight until my friends were talking about it, and although I dieted and spent large sums of money for medicines and treatments I kept getting worse and worse, and thought my time was drawing near.

"A friend advised me to get Karnak, and I thank him every time I see him now for putting me on to this remarkable new medicine. My stomach is just as tough as nails now, and don't give me a particle of trouble. It just seems as if I can't eat enough, and I have gone up from one hundred and forty to one hundred and fifty-six pounds in weight. I don't have a trouble of any kind and come in from work these days whistling and feeling fine. Just tell anybody who wants to know about Karnak to look me up."

Karnak is sold in Norway exclusively by Frank P. Stone; and by the leading druggist in every town.

Junior Drama and Sale

The Junior drama and sale, Monday, were very successful and a good big sum was realized. The sale consisted of aprons, fancy goods, may baskets, dolls and ice cream. The three act drama entitled "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard" with eleven characters taken by the eleven members of the Junior class were well taken, the voices loud and clear and not one of them had ever taken part in a drama before. Marjorie Ellwell, who took the part of Mrs. Briggs, the leading character had a lot to learn and she did it well. Elizabeth Bane, who took the part of the neighbor, who didn't like goats was made up strikingly with long, full dress, pink jacket and red plaid shawl. Jessie Ross, who was cast as Mr. Lee, a wealthy man, was completely changed. She wore a black suit, long dress coat and tall silk hat, an old gentleman's gray wig and mask and her voice was good for an old man. Gordon Richardson as Silas Green, a near relative, had quite a long nose, side whiskers, gray pants and black outwag coat and was quite funny and who married Mandy Bates, the stutterer, (Inez Briggs) who didn't have time to get her wedding dress done so Mrs. Briggs rigged her out with a white apron with strings tied under her chin for a wedding veil.

Ralph (Edward Burnham) and Johnny Briggs (Albert Penley) had large aspirations. Alvira and Melissa Briggs (Lena and Maudie Swift) made quite a little of Virginia Lee (Hilla Hanta) was Mr. Lee's adopted daughter, who cared for Ralph Briggs against her father's wishes, came to live with Mrs. Briggs and Ralph, who were foundlings, went to the city and later discovered that Mr. Lee was really his own father. Daisy Thornton (Madeline Emery) was Virginia's best friend.
